A MUSICAL SENSATION

Robbie Kennedy is thirteen. He's a schoolboy, and he's also the star of the London musical, Billy Elliot - The Musical.

Like Billy, Robbie is also from the north of England. He's from Hull, in the north-east. He says: 'I've got three brothers, but I'm the only dancer in the family!'

Now Robbie lives in London with a host family. He says: 'I live with Mr and Mrs Grant and their son, Ed. They're great. Two other actors from the show live there, too. Matt is thirteen and Sarah is fourteen. They're my friends, and we do everything together. We have lessons, we work in the theatre, and we have fun.'

Billy Elliot - The Musical is the story of Billy, a young boy from the north of England. One day, Billy tells his family he wants to be a ballet dancer. His dad isn't very happy. He says: 'Ballet isn't for boys.' But Billy goes to lessons in secret. In the end, he becomes a famous ballet dancer, and his family is very proud of him.
